Conference Guidelines

1. You must remain within Katy ISD Ag Facilities and the Holiday Inn facilities throughout the conference. If it becomes absolutely necessary for you to leave, approval from all camp staff is required.
2. The use of alcohol and tobacco products during the conference is prohibited.
3. Keep your room neat and avoid leaving your things on the floor. Do your part to keep the shared space clean and orderly.
4. Plan to arrive at all sessions and functions before they are scheduled to begin.
5. You are encouraged to meet as many people as possible during the conference.
6. Plan to get an adequate amount of sleep in order to remain alert and active. A room check and lights out time is indicated on the schedule unless otherwise specified.
7. Notify the conference staff immediately of any illness or injury.
8. Notify conference staff of any special dietary or physical requirements.
9. Respect the property and facilities of Katy ISD and the Holiday Inn at all times. We are their guests.
10. Keep all materials issued during the conference. Replacements will not be provided.
11. Notebooks are required to be with you during conference activities excluding Fun Night/recreation, meals, and activities where you are told to leave notebooks behind.
12. How much you learn will depend on how much you participate. Take an active role in all things!!
13. Be respectful of all other conference members. What is not offensive to you may be to others.
14. Boys are not allowed in the girls' rooms, and vice versa.
15. All participants must follow the dress code at all times. Please remember that you are representing a large number of FFA members as an Area Officer; please dress responsibly and represent them well. The dress code is as follows:
 - a. No hats indoors.
 - b. No shorts above fingertip length.
 - c. No 'Spaghetti Strap' or midriff shirts.
 - d. No clothing with questionable/inappropriate logos/words.
 - e. Business Casual/Casual/Official Dress attire at designated times.
16. The use of confetti in any form is not permitted on-site.
